THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY ADOPT-A-JOURNAL PROGRAM

One of the most important and consistent expenses of the Pontifical Institute Library -- indeed, of any library -- is the annual subscription to a great number and variety of journals. These journals offer articles, reviews, and bibliographies, as well as information on conferences, exhibitions, and new publications in the field of medieval studies. Scholars and students would be lost without them.

In the past several years, the Institute Library has decided to cancel subscriptions for many journals received by other libraries within the University of Toronto. This was done so that we could concentrate on those journals essential to medieval research not otherwise available in Toronto. Unfortunately, as budgets grow tighter, annual subscription rates increase, and although the Library does not propose cancelling further journals, their increasing cost represents an ever-greater strain on the overall acquisitions budget.

You can help us maintain our current subscriptions by adopting a journal. By donating the cost of the annual subscription to one of the journals we receive, you will ensure that it remains available to the many medievalists consulting the Institute Library. Further, a book-plate honouring your contribution will be placed in the journal you adopt.

A partial list of the journals we receive, with their subscription rates, is on the reverse of this form. If you are interested in adopting a journal, or would like to see a more complete list, please contact us. We will be delighted to answer any questions you might have.
